FOCAL POINT TRAINING

Focal Point Training specialise in corporate situations that may need to be handled delicately. With this in mind we created a simple animation showcasing popular office issues and how Focal Point Training can help. The video was then housed on their responsive website, which we also created!

HCS SAFETY

HCS Safety provides comprehensive training services for businesses on-site or at their South Coast venue. They wanted their original website (that we created) updated, so we designed a parallax site that reacts responsively. The new site allows users to book via an integrated booking system too.
